It was done in a most unethical way. (Interruptions)

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN : Mr. Narayanasamy, please sit down. I will answer him. Mr. Gurudas Das Gupta, it is nice that you have a very boisterous, loud voice.

SHRI GURUDAS DAS GUPTA : That is not the point.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN : Just a minute. If the Members are not present in the House, the House cannot collapse. It is your duty to be in the House. It is not the duty . . .

SHRI GURUDAS DAS GUPTA : It was to continue for three hours.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN : That is not the problem.

SHRI GURUDAS DAS GUPTA : The debate was closed. It is unethical.

(Interruptions).

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN : Please sit down. If there was nobody to speak, the business of the House cannot collapse. If you had gone to the doctor, the bell was ringing. There was a Division. You heard the bell. That is enough for the Members to know. And the Members are requested and expected to be sitting in the House while the discussion is going on.

SHRI GURUDAS DAS GUPTA : I want to ask whether the decision of the Business Advisory Committee was violated or not.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN : The Business Advisory Committee decision was dealt with. (Interruptions) Mr. Narayanasamy, please do not argue.

SHRI GURUDAS DAS GUPTA : My argument was that it was meant for three hours.

SHRI V. NARAYANASAMY : The Members are bound to be present in the House.

(Interruptions).

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN : Mr. Narayanasamy, there is no point in your arguing because what I have said is part of the record. And it is a fact. Whatever he might say, it has no meaning. The Bill was given three hours. But if the Members are not there to speak, we cannot force the Members to speak.

SHRI GURUDAS DAS GUPTA : You are taking it lightly.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN : It is not taking it lightly. You went away. Now, there are some papers to be laid on the Table. Shri M. V. Chandrashekhar Murthy.
